

CERIC Doctoral Conference 2012 Liberty Building Lecture Theatre (LG:06)
9.00-9:30 Registration
9.30-9:45 Opening and welcome Professor Mark Stuart
9:45-11:00 Plenary Session 1: The Labour Process and Collective Representation Adejoke Ige, ACAS Individual Conciliation Jane Copely, Collective trade union organisation Sylvia Acquah, Social Enterprise and Employee Empowerment Jo Cutter, Contemporary learning partnerships in the UK
11:00-11:15 Coffee
11:15-12:30 Plenary Session 2: The Labour Process and Collective Representation Jonathan Hoskin, Partnership Relations at a Unionised Manufacturing Plant Jeong-Hee Lee, Union and Subcontracted labour: What makes a difference? Simon Joyce, Shop stewards in action: revisiting bargaining, sanctions and job controls Trudy Bates, A job for a woman? A critical exploration of trade union leadership
12:30-2:00 Lunch and poster presentations
2:00-3:15 Plenary Session 3: Global perspectives Po-Chien Chen, Agency Workers of Financial Service Sector in Taiwan Claire Holland, Brits abroad: exploring migration, lifestyle and work Mawish Khan, Feminisation of education in Pakistan Darren McGuire, NGO workers' rights Cristina Galalae, Globalisation and international students' consumption patterns
3:15-3:30 Break
3:30-4:45 Plenary Session 4: Professionalism and HR Strategy Nousheen Zakaria, HR strategy to implementation – case evidence from Pakistan Krystal Wilkinson, Work-life orientations of solo living young professionals/ managers Nicholas Jepson, Professionalism and professional socialization Andreas Chronopoulos, Home-based work strategies for pharmaceutical studies Sara Agahi, Strengths of dyslexia in the workplace
4:45-5:00 Closing and thanks Professor Rob Mackenzie
5:00 Drinks