

22%

reported that their offices had been redesigned to support hybrid working.

7%

had received training in managing or participating in hybrid meetings.

31%

were aware of a formal flexi-hours policy in their organisation.

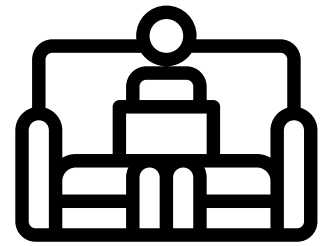

80%

said they wanted to have an assigned desk rather than sharing with others.

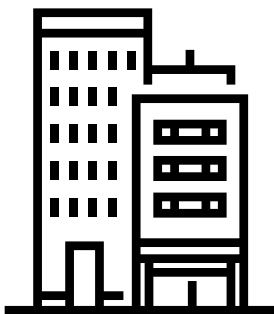

1,000 office workers across the UK were surveyed in August 2021.

36%

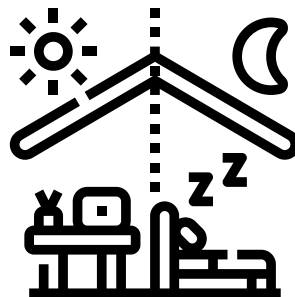

did not have a dedicated workspace from home.

37%

wanted to work in the office 5 days a week.

30%

wanted some level of hybrid work pattern.

33%

never wanted to work in the office.

Find out more: www.bitly.com/AdaptingOffices